Description

An 18th Century English Mahogany Serving Table with Faux Marble Scagliola Top. This elegant table was made in the late 18th century neoclassical period and is highly influenced by the designs produced by the likes of Robert Adam and James Wyatt. Of unusually slim and elegant proportions, this fine table has a fluted frieze with applied carved paterae. The six tapering square sectioned legs are also fluted and they terminate in spade toes with collars. The table has a scagliola or faux marble top, A very stylish Table.
