Description

A stunning example of Victorian craftsmanship, this antique bangle is beautifully handcrafted in rich 18ct gold. Dating to around 1890, it features three vibrant round-cut amethysts, elegantly set on a knife-edge band that enhances their brilliance. The central amethyst measures approximately 7.5 mm, flanked by two 6 mm stones, creating a balanced and eye-catching design. The bangle is secured with a classic push box clasp and safety chain, ensuring both beauty and peace of mind when worn. This heirloom-quality piece is in exceptional original condition and comes presented in the elegant box shown.
