Description

This is a super pair of antique Victorian sterling silver photo frames each measuring just 3" (7.5 cms) x 2" (5 cms) across with the openings measuring 1 1/2" (4 cms) x 1 1/4" (3 cms). One is hallmarked for London 1887 and the other for London 1888 with the silversmiths mark for William Comyns. They have lovely pierced decoration of cherubs and flowers and its quite unusual to find a pair. They are in very good condition with no damage (any marks you can see are just reflections) and are perfectly usable. This lovely pair will come in a gift box with a certificate of authenticity. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
