Description

A super pretty and highly detailed all over floral design with exquisite white eight-pointed star motifs, with stunning vine work too. This antique Kirman carpet was woven around 1910, full of amazing blue tones, purple/pink hues and rich reds in the border hints of greens too. A large antique carpet with areas of wear in places, scattered around, but the majority is in great order. An amazing decorative piece to enhance a dining room, drawing room or study for example. Request a home visit and we shall bring this antique Kirman carpet to your own home, on a convenient day and time. We have travelled all over the UK helping interior designers and private customers since 1990. Book in a showroom visit - we would love to welcome you here soon and show you this antique carpet and many more. We have a vast inventory of antique and contemporary carpets, rugs and runners.
