Description

A Waring and Gillow dining table, in Chippendale taste, circa 1905 Edwardian period. This large extending dining table constructed in quality mahogany with ash secondary timbers. The oblong shaped top with rounded corners and gadroon moulded edge. The table extends by way of telescopic bearer stretchers, all of which are constructed in ash. The two additional leaves can be removed and the table reduced in length. Original Joseph Fitter patent winder mechanism with handle. The table is raised on carved cabriole legs on ball and claw feet with hidden castors. Ivorine plaque which details "Waring & Gillow of Liverpool, Appointment to the King", on the inside of one of the telescopic stretchers. Plus the top of both telescopic stretchers are stamped "Waring & Gillow L'pool". At just a shade under 8 feet in length this table will comfortably seat 8 people. 10 at a push using smaller chairs. (The chairs on the picture are very wide at 54.5 cm (21.5")). A superb table, completely original and unmolested. Extremely heavy, as was made to the highest standards and only used the best quality timbers available. There are some marks in the top, but as this is the original polish we ...
