Description

A good quality pair of ash chest of drawers, each with three long graduated drawers and two short drawers above, one drawer stamped by the London cabinet makers James Shoolbred. The chests give excellent storage, similar brass handles, panelled sides, with unusual dovetails to the drawers, see photo. Both in good strong condition, minor historic treated woodworm to the back of one chest, good running drawers, one drawer interior with old marks (see photo) both have a nice colour to the ash, and are all ready to use.
