Description

For sale is a fine antique Georgian writing slope crafted from beautiful harewood, dating from the late 18th to early 19th century. This elegant portable desk features stunning shell fan inlays to each corner, a central oval burr veneer cartouche, and crisp satinwood crossbanding – all signs of skilled craftsmanship from the Georgian period. The box opens to reveal its original green baize writing surface, and inside you'll find fitted compartments for inkwells, pens, and writing implements. One original brass inkwell remains in place, adding further authenticity and charm. Materials: Harewood, satinwood and tulipwood Age: c.1790 Size: Length: 30cm Width: 25cm Height: 12.5cm
