Description

This is a charming 19th century, Meiji period Japanese woodblock print hand coloured and framed in an attractive rosewood frame with its original embroidered silk brocade mount. The frame is backed with a pretty Japanese chrysanthemum design fabric that is of the period. The woodblock is in excellent order with a Bijin depicted seated painting a Japanese fan. This is signed by the artist and has Japanese calligraphy above the artwork. The frame measures 47 cms by 28.5 cms overall by 3 cms deep. UK insured packing and delivery is £12
