Description

Antique Edwardian 9ct Gold Amethyst & Pearl Bracelet – Heart Padlock Clasp – Hallmarked London 1907 A truly exquisite piece of Edwardian jewellery, this antique 9ct gold bracelet features a striking combination of vibrant amethysts and lustrous seed pearls, delicately arranged in an elegant floral motif. Three rich purple amethysts (approx. 4mm x 3.5mm) alternate with six creamy seed pearls, all securely collet set in a classic gold curb link chain. The centerpiece transitions beautifully into the narrower side links for a flattering, graceful drape around the wrist. The bracelet is secured with a charming heart-shaped padlock clasp, complete with a safety chain for peace of mind. The clasp is fully hallmarked for London, 1907, and bears the maker's mark R.P. for Robert Pringle & Sons of Clerkenwell Road, London – a respected name in antique British jewellery. Details: Length: 19.5 cm / 7½ inches Width: 8mm Heart clasp: 14mm x 18mm with working safety chain Weight: 6.8 grams Fully hallmarked: 9ct gold, London assay, 1907 Marked 9ct on clasp and end links Excellent original condition – ready to wear or gift Includes vintage style presentation box. 5mm at front, 5.5mm at s...
