Description

Step into timeless elegance with this exquisite Edwardian garland necklace, featuring a radiant lime green peridot framed by lustrous creamy white seed pearls – a true antique treasure, circa 1910. Beautifully handcrafted in rich 15ct gold, this necklace embodies delicate Edwardian charm. At its heart lies a vibrant round-cut peridot (6.2mm) encircled by a graceful foliate wreath set with gleaming pearls. A single pearl drop (4.8mm x 4.5mm) adds gentle movement and an extra touch of sophistication. The double-chain split trace link design joins at a second, smaller foliate circle – an elegant detail that makes this piece truly special. It secures with a traditional 15ct gold barrel clasp, stamped accordingly. This necklace sits gracefully on the neckline and is perfect for bridal wear, evening glamour, or as a meaningful heirloom gift.
