Description

A good cold painted Art Nouveau bronze of "Eglantine" with her dress painted in green and the floral decoration in gold gilt. The bronze is integrated onto a rouge marble pillar with a plaque attached inscribed "Eglantine par H St Lerche". Eglantine is quite beautiful with an air of peace and in very good condition. Biography. Hans Stephan Stoltenberg-Lerche was active as a sculptor, painter and craftsman. His artistic interests were broad, figurative ceramics, jewelry, metalware and most recently glass are part of his oeuvre. Stoltenberg-Lerche was a Norwegian citizen, but grew up in Germany, where he trained as a ceramist. He later studied sculpture in Naples and Paris and became a student of the painter Ernest Carrière. His designs were in great demand among Parisian publishers, and he created numerous models in ceramics and bronze. He also produced a large number of works for the Viennese manufactory Goldscheider. His figurative vessels brought him great recognition at the turn of the century. Among other things, he received a gold medal at the 1900 Paris World's Fair and participated in the 1st International Exhibition of Modern Decorative Art in Turin in 1902. ...
