Description

These are a very nice pair of sabre legged Regency period side chairs. They have a very attractive worn original ebonised finish. The brass details all over are also original but some have been reattached through their life. There is also a brass roundel missing but hardly noticeable and nothing takes away from the quality and design of these chairs. The ideal occasional seating. The back rest with tight bobbin detail is also very smart. Height 84cm Width 47cm Depth 53cm Depth of seat 38cm Height of seat 42cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
