Description

Circa 1600 Large Italian Majolica Polychrome Pharmacy Jug Jar - Exceptional! Brief Description: This is a rare, large, early 17th-century Italian Majolica Polychrome Twin-handled Jug. The fabulous piece is embellished with fabulous hand-painted scenes of a landscape and a single bird in flight. It has two large handles with a body that is beautifully moulded. The Jug screams of the late 16th/early 17th-century Italian Renaissance period. Probably from the Northern region of Italy, Lazio or Umbria. Attributes: Italian Majolica Late 16th - early 17th-century Provenance: Private collection, 1990s-2023 Ex: Private collection 1970s-1990s Condition: The piece is offered in an overall very good condition commensurate with its age. There is no visible damage or signs of previous repair. The rim and the base of the jug have been retouched with black paint - see images.
