Description

Very Large 19th Century Antique Overmantle Wall Mirror – Painted Frame with Distressed Grey, White & Red Finish. Make a bold statement with this very large 19th-century antique overmantle mirror, showcasing a worn painted frame in tones of grey, white, and red. This rare and visually striking piece is perfect for vintage, rustic, industrial, or eclectic interiors, bringing dramatic character to entrance halls, fireplaces, or feature walls. An uncommon and impressive find, the frame is structurally sound with no loose joints or signs of woodworm. The original mirror glass is richly aged, showing heavy oxidation with attractive spiderweb-style patterns, enhancing its authentic antique charm. There is a small 1cm chip in the glass—not near the edge and non-progressive—as well as scratches and other age-related imperfections, all consistent with its age. Product Dimensions Overall Maximum Dimensions: Height 153cm x Width 98cm x Depth 7cm. Visible Mirror Area: Height 140cm x Width 82cm. This mirror is in good antique condition, featuring a naturally worn and weathered finish, along with the expected knocks, marks, repairs, and alterations acquired over more than a century. S...
