Description

A charming early Derby porcelain figure group of a ewe suckling her lamb. Stood on a shaped base with applied blue flowers and leaves and set in front of a carefully arranged bocage with simple red centred flowers with pale lemon petal tips. Beautifully modelled figures with finely textured fleeces and lovely expressions on their faces. Patch marks to the base. c.1760-1765. It measures 15.2cm (6") high and 12.7cm (5") wide by 9.5cm (3 3/4") deep. In excellent condition: the ewe has lost the tip of her left ear, a very small loss to the tip of her left front toe and there are some usual minor losses to the bocage but no other damage, repair or restoration and very minor handling wear.
