Description

A superb cased pair of Edwardian Britannia standard silver pepperettes, crafted in faithful homage to George I designs. These elegant cylindrical peppers rest on collet feet and feature pierced domed lids with a charming star motif. The graceful scroll handles and clean, minimalist lines reflect timeless sophistication. Made from Britannia silver—renowned for its higher purity (95.84%)—this pair is fully hallmarked for London 1903 and bears the maker's mark of Charles Stuart Harris. Each retains its original push-fit lid and is beautifully presented in its original green velvet-lined box from Collingwood & Co, jewellers to the Royal Family. Dimensions: 8 cm high Weight: 5 oz / 184.97 grams (gross) Condition: Excellent, with only light tarnish and minimal handling wear. Secure lids and level bases.
