Description

Charming Edwardian cellarette beautifully crafted from rich mahogany, in excellent antique condition. The lockable top opens to reveal a clean, spacious interior, originally designed for storing wine but versatile enough for securing other valuables. Raised on carved cabriole-style legs finished with claw and ball feet. While traditionally used for wine storage it could also make it a perfect side table. With its classic craftsmanship this superb antique is both practical and visually striking, making it a wonderful addition to any home.
