Description

A delightful two drawer chest only 76 cm wide from around 1880. The kingwood chest is beautifully decorated in marquetry inlay and is on splayed cabriole legs. The sides and front are of bombe form and the drawers are oak lined. It is in good original condition with a few old repairs and the odd dead woodworm hole. This is a more unusual chest of drawers in that the top is high quality decorative inlay instead of the more usual marble.
