Description

A stunning, fine and impressive vintage 32.20 carat aquamarine, 0.10 carat diamond and 14ct yellow gold pendant made by C'est Laudier; part of our diverse vintage jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive vintage aquamarine pendant has been crafted in 14ct yellow gold with 14ct white gold settings. The finely crafted, pierced decorated setting displays a stunning central feature six-claw 32.20ct emerald cut aquamarine. This central feature gemstone flanked with two mine cut diamonds, pavé set within white gold settings, flanked with scrolling designs. The upper and lower portions of the setting bear three-dimensional scrolling designs, surmounted with three further pavé set diamonds in a linear formation. This stunning and large aquamarine pendant suspends from a contemporary 18"/45.72cm 18ct yellow gold chain via a tapering bale to the apex of the pendant, securing with a conventional spring-loaded bolt ring fastening. This vintage 1940's pendant is hallmarked to the reverser of the bale with the 14ct gold mark (585) and the maker's mark (C'est Laudier). The necklace is supplied with an IDGL diamond and gemstone grading report ca...
