Description

This elegant set of 4 rosewood dining chairs showcases the refined design and craftsmanship typical of mid-19th century furniture. Crafted from richly grained solid rosewood, these chairs feature balloon backs with decorative carved splats, gently curving cabriole front legs, and a polished finish that highlights the natural beauty of the wood. The upholstered seats are covered in a classic floral tapestry fabric, adding warmth and traditional charm. These Victorian-style dining chairs are not only visually striking but also comfortable and sturdy, ideal for both formal dining rooms and classic interiors. Seat Height 36cm circa 1860

Internal Ref: C2340
