Description

A rather fabulous Regency mahogany wall hanging Tavern clock by Geo Roche of Kidderminster. Fully serviced and ready to go. Well chosen timber and good detail. Standing 55" tall, 19.5" wide by 10" deep. No chime as this has a double going train, an ebony pendulum and a huge brass bob to ensure accuracy as many domestic clocks and watches would be set from it. A very uncommon thing and would make a wonderful kitchen clock.
