Description

A George III period, mahogany tripod supper table, dating from the late 18th century. This quality table features a beautifully figured, single piece, solid mahogany top. Supported by a baluster stem, raised on a tripod of carved cabriole legs. An attractive, quality table, in good condition and ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 71.5 cm (28.25") tall, and the top is 80.5 cm (31.75") in diameter. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. Minor old marks and blemishes. A aged partial split to the top part of the side of one of the legs. The block has been replaced at some point. The catch is a replacement, though is of a similar period. The underside of the stem and legs have been fitted with a strengthening bracket, which can be seen on almost all of these types of tables. Sensitively cleaned and waxed polished. Very well presented. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
