Description

A very unusual Scottish antique silver "sporrán" shaped box. This was made in Edinburgh in 1881 by Mackay and Chisholm. The back of the box is fully hallmarked and a sliding lock closure. There is a hanging chain and 6 coloured glass tear drops on the front. Overall this stylish snuff box is in excellent condition with only a couple of tiny dings on the back. A very beautiful piece, well made and expertly finished, a very collectable piece of Scottish silver. WEIGHT; 55 grams approximately. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
