Description

A magnificent pair of vintage flower cluster earrings, designed by the celebrated American jeweller Julius Cohen, renowned for his distinctive craftsmanship and elegant design. Expertly made in the late 1960s these striking earrings are fashioned in 14 carat gold and set with a delightful arrangement of vibrant turquoise cabochons and dazzling brilliant-cut diamonds, totalling in excess of 1.5 carats. Each earring is crafted in a floral spray design, with textured gold leaves interspersed with diamond-set petals and fine turquoise stones, creating a bold yet refined statement on the ear. The clip-on fittings offer both comfort and security, allowing them to be worn effortlessly without the need for pierced ears.
