Description

This is a superb pair of antique 19th Century Swiss carved walnut and marquetry inlaid hall chairs. They have striking inlaid Alpine hunting scenes to the backs, the figures in Bavarian clothing, the seats are decorated with inlaid Goat and Chamois and the chairs are raised on decorative carved legs. These are very handsome pieces which would look perfect in any study or library. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. It is a popular and attractive wood whose colour ranges from near white in the sapwood to a dark hew in the heartwood. When dried in a kiln, walnut wood tends to develop a dull brown colour, but when air-dried can become a rich purplish-brown. Because of its colour, hardness and grain, it is a prized furniture and carving wood. Walnut veneer was...
