Description

A Stunning Set of Four Antique Edwardian Silver Bud Vases featuring a gently flared trumpet form, scalloped rim, and weighted circular pedestal bases - making them ideal for displaying single blooms or petite floral arrangements. This set of four is decorated with a family crest of a castle folly with a bird standing atop the ramparts. Hallmarked for Birmingham, 1908. * Designed as a harmonious set, ideal for symmetrical displays, table centrepieces, or individual place settings. Measurements: Height: 5 3/4" (approx. 14.5cm) Diameter across top: 2 1/2" (approx. 6cm) Total weight: 820g In good condition - Only light surface wear consistent with age and gentle use. All vases stand evenly and securely.
