Description

Really nice pair of 1930s chocolate brown leather chairs. The leather is in very good condition, there is only the odd mark here and there, please see photographs. I have photographed the chairs inside and out because the camera seems to struggle to show the colour as it is. In the pictures where they look very tan, it isn't really right they are a bit darker - more of a chocolate brown. Also some of the cushions look a bit purple in some pictures; they are actually more chocolate brown colour. The colours work well together and look good. I would see no need to re-cover the soft seats, unless you wanted a statement fabric. They are super comfy to sit in and very supportive. The depth of the seat front to back is 65 cm the width of the seat at the front is 56 cm. The seat height including the cushion is 41 cm. Without the cushion is 30 cm. st 3736
