Description

This exquisite large scale decorative portrait is a lovely example copied in the style of the Dutch Golden Age manner of portraiture and finished in oils painted on a vinyl material as an alternative to primed canvas and dating around 1960. In this carefully observed full length example, Justina is wearing the style of clothing that was fashionable in Holland during the early to mid 17th century. She wears a ruff collar and holds a bird feather fan held in her right hand. ABOUT THE SITTER JUSTINA VAN TEYLINGEN (1596- 1643) She was married to Adriaen de Kies van Wiessen in 1613 when she was seventeen. This large scale full length example is an unusual version which was first painted by Van de Voort to commemorate her marriage. Justina is soberly but richly dressed in a lace cap trimmed with fashionable and expensive reticella lace, starched millstone ruff, embroidered stomacher, and long green over gown. Clothes and accessories were of enormous importance. Often immense sums were spent on them, and sitters were justifiably proud and anxious to show them off. Their clothes and accessories also carried strong social connotations. Black was the high fashion of...
