Description

An attractive early 20th Century cabinet cameo glass vase etched and enameled with budding flowers against a cream field, signed Daum Nancy and with the Cross of Lorraine ADDITIONAL INFORMATION Height: 14 cm Diameter: 4.5 cm Condition: Excellent Original Condition Circa: 1900 Materials: Etched and Enameled Cameo Glass SKU: 6710 ABOUT Daum's unique technique common to all was that a clear vessel was blown with colour only on the inner surface or layer. An acid resist landscape was painted free-hand onto the vessel which was then etched by plunging into a hydrofluoric acid bath. The outer surface was then polished which gave the trees a 'third dimension' as the onlooker can see through the clear glass to the inner colour. Then the background was frosted, tricking the eye into thinking it is seeing coloured glass. Three types of enamel were painted by the artist to complete the design: transparent enamel for the three dimensional trees, opaque ...
