Description

A beautiful pair of Dutch chairs made from walnut with allover flora and bird marquetry. They stand on cabriole legs, intricately carved at the top and culminating in animal inspired carved feet. The H stretchers are carved with scrolls. The drop-in seats have been re-upholstered in blue silk with cream scrolling. These are rare and beautiful chairs, which are robust and professionally restored. Circa 1770. We can discuss collection or delivery options. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone
