Description

This elegant Edwardian display cabinet features a beautifully curved serpentine front and a painted satinwood finish. The upper section is enclosed by a glazed door, perfect for showcasing your treasured items. It sits beneath a moulded, fluted cornice adorned with hand-painted floral sprays and a central classical urn motif. The cabinet's sides are gracefully concave, with lower panels decorated with delicate bows and garlands of flowers. It stands on fluted legs with peg feet, connected by an undertier for added stability and charm. A true statement piece for any traditional or vintage-inspired interior.
