Description

George III Oak & Mahogany Bow Fronted Corner Cupboard A charming and highly decorative George III corner cupboard, crafted from oak with mahogany crossbanding and elegant bow-fronted doors. The simple yet refined inlaid design gives this piece a timeless appeal, perfect for both classic and contemporary interiors. It has a lovely, aged patina, with some light, superficial marks that speak to its history without detracting from its overall beauty. The interior features two fixed shelves and is painted white, with some black paint subtly showing through—adding character or offering a great opportunity for easy repainting to suit your space. The cupboard is solid and sturdy, with wall-mounting brackets fitted to the top for added stability. Complete with a working lock and key, this is a practical and stylish piece that will offer both storage and elegance for years to come.
