Description

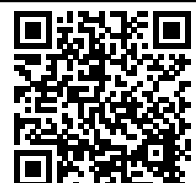

French Art Deco Clock & Garniture Set This attractive French Art Deco Clock is styled in a demi-lune shape with matching garniture. The clock is made of contrasting Broccatello di Siena and Portor marble blended seamlessly together. The matching Tazza garniture are also in turned marble with brass collars. The clock movement sits behind a convex glass door held in a brass bezel. On the enamel dial are Arabic numbers and two winding holes with original hands. The clock is signed 'Just' and was manufactured by Serre of Dax. In very good condition, the clock is in working order. The movement runs for eight days and strikes on the hour. The original bell, pendulum and key are all supplied.
