Description

A beautiful example of late Victorian sentiment and craftsmanship, this 18ct gold buckle ring features a star-set old cut diamond, framed within finely engraved detailing that enhances the symbolic buckle motif. The buckle was a popular Victorian emblem, signifying loyalty, strength, and eternal love — making this a particularly meaningful piece of antique jewellery. Expertly hand crafted, the ring is rich in period character, with an elegant taper from the decorative buckle front to a smooth, comfortable band. The old cut diamond sparkles gently, a lovely reminder of a bygone era.
