Description

A superb inlaid flame mahogany clothes press dating from around 1790. It is in great original condition with good colour and a mellow patinated finish. The drawers and original slides are oak lined and the linen press splits into three parts to make transportation easier. The solid brass oval plate handles are historical replacements and have been on for many years. Possible Irish in origin. Internal size of top section: H 98 cm W 106 cm D 46 cm.
