Description

This elegant Edwardian mahogany cheval mirror is perfect for classic interiors. The mirror features a full-length, adjustable glass supported within a beautifully shaped mahogany frame. The arched top adds a touch of sophistication, while the turned finials and stretchered base enhance its traditional charm. Standing on shaped supports, this antique free-standing mirror is sturdy yet graceful, ideal for use in bedrooms, dressing rooms, or hallways. Its rich, warm patina and original mirror glass make it a sought-after choice for collectors and decorators alike. Whether you're searching for an Edwardian cheval mirror, antique dressing mirror, or mahogany full-length mirror, this piece offers both function and heritage style. A practical and decorative antique, it effortlessly blends vintage character with everyday usability. circa 1920
