Description

A pair of 19th-century Sèvres style vases featuring an elegant urn shape with a flared lip and sturdy base. The cobalt blue colour is a beautiful contrast to the intricate gold embellishments, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship. Each vase is adorned with finely painted romantic or pastoral scenes, reflecting the artistic style of the era. Ornate ormolu handles add to their grandeur, while the detailed brushwork captures the essence of the subjects. Renowned for quality, Sèvres porcelain symbolizes French nobility and opulence, making these vases not just decorative objects but also significant works of art that embody the sophistication of their time.
