Description

This Victorian open bookcase is of substantial proportions, offering ample storage space across two generous bays, each fitted with three height adjustable shelves, making it ideal for housing a wide range of books or decorative objects. Constructed from solid oak with fluted columns that flank each side, terminating in finely carved corbels. The bookcase stands on a plinth base, while the moulded cornice at the top completes the piece with a strong, elegant profile. Offered in very good condition, ready for use in the home.
