Description

A good example of a 19th Century Chinese blue and white vase and cover which has been converted to a table lamp. It is a good quality and very decorative piece with a prunus design and a 4-character mark to the base. The lamp has been rewired to modern standards to take a standard bayonet bulb and is in working order with a valid PAT test certificate. It is in good condition with no major damages and displays well. There are some signs of age and use and a couple of light scuffs around the rim but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £15
