Description

A lovely mahogany wine table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a rectangular top set on a delicate turned support with tripod splayed legs and spade feet. It is a good quality piece and the mahogany has a beautiful rich colour and patina. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are some signs of age and use, some minor marks and knocks but no major damages. There have been a few old repairs and there is some historic worm on the underneath which has all been treated as a precaution and the table displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
