Description

A good example of a small Georgian mahogany bachelor's chest of drawers dating from the late 18th / early 19th century. It has an attractive bow front and there are three long drawers, each with brass plate handles below a gentleman's brushing slide. It stands on sweeping bracket feet. The chest is in good original condition and is a sturdy piece that has been well made and well looked after. The oak lined drawers are generally clean and tidy and open smoothly. The timber has a good colour and the whole piece has developed a lovely patina. It is not without a few small surface marks and knocks and signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
