Description

A very good, bold Oak table, designed to stand freely, finished all round, and of uniform colour and patination to all sides. The left drawer showing the evidence of a wooden spring secret jamming catch, long ago broken. The drawers are Elm lined and retain the original drop handles. There are original bearers to the underside of the top to enable extra pegging, maintaining the flat surface. An unusual feature is the stretchers being of equal gauge as the legs. All original feet. Fabulous dark rich colour and natural patination.
