Description

A magnificent silver waiter dating from the 1750's. It has a shaped piecrust border, with shells and stands on three hoof feet. The decoration is probably later and features the fine armorial of a unicorn to the centre. The guage of the silver is good and it would make a fine investment piece as such items are now very scarce. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £15.00 UK £25.00 Europe £35.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. Date :- London 1747. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- William Peaston. (Specialist salver maker). Diameter :- 17 cms (outer edge). Height :- 2.7 cms.
