Description

An 18th Century English Wing Chair of Strong Form and Proportions. This is a good, strong model of wing chair. The outscrolling arms combined with square front rail and H-stretcher base creates an attractive, sturdy and practical chair. The chair has been fully upholstered from a bare frame upwards in our workshops to an under finish ready for the client's final choice of upholstery or could be left as-is for a contemporary look. It has squab cushion, and also has large original castors. Of good size and scale.
