Description

A superb early 20th-century curved bowed corner display cabinet, very likely made by Sage & Co. Ltd. The renowned London firm known for crafting high-quality shop fittings and bespoke display furniture. This piece features newly installed toughened top glass, and new bowed glass front and side. The counter has a wonderful framed with a brass trim, and a parquetry oak base with a rich, honey-toned finish. The cabinet is raised on carved tapering legs with decorative brass-mounted castors, and includes adjustable glass shelves and a rear access door with original brass fittings. While unlabelled, the craftsmanship, form, and materials are consistent with known examples by Sage & Co. H: 88.5 W: 151 D: 74.5 cm
