Description

Thomas William Morley (1859–1925) British painter known for his atmospheric landscapes and pastoral scenes. This original 1910 watercolour by T. W. Morley captures a tranquil view of Eynsford Viaduct, Kent — an elegant 1800s red-brick railway structure spanning the River Darent valley. In the foreground, a shepherd walks his flock beneath dramatic skies, framed by soft woodlands and moorland textures. Morley's signature style shines through in the gentle palette, hazy distance, and sense of rural calm.
