Description

Pair of Royal Worcester Blanc de Chine Roosters – Modelled by A. Azori, Liseron 3581. A fine pair of vintage blanc de chine porcelain rooster figures by Royal Worcester. Modelled by A. Azori and titled Liseron, these sculptures are crisply detailed and exhibit the elegance of Royal Worcester's mid-20th century output. Each rooster stands proudly on a naturalistic base, the feathers finely modelled with fluidity and precision. One bears the Royal Worcester factory mark in gilt, model number 3581, and a date code for 1960. The other, likely part of the same production batch, is unmarked to the base. Both figures are of identical size and clearly intended as a matched pair. Measurements: Each figure measures approximately 27 cm high x 23 cm wide x 11 cm deep. Condition: Both offered in very good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.
