Description

This late 19th century Vienna porcelain charger features a vibrant and dynamic scene of a cavalry battle. The central artwork depicts soldiers engaged in combat, mounted on richly adorned horses, highlighting the ferocity of the conflict. The meticulous detailing showcases the skill of the artist, with colorful uniforms and expressive facial features capturing the intensity of the moment. Surrounding the scene, the charger is adorned with an intricate border featuring floral motifs and geometric patterns, typical of the era's craftsmanship. This piece exemplifies the elegance and artistry of Vienna porcelain, merging historical narrative with exquisite decorative art. Batch 83 50323 SKZZN
