Description

Princess Maria Vladimirovna Wolkonsky (Russian, 1875-1960) Title: Boats on a lake in Provence. Medium: Oil on canvas. Period: 1920. Provenance: From a private Scottish collection and with MacDougall's — École de Paris and Other Masters Dec 05, 2023 Lot No. 45 (see photos for auction details). Signed lower left-hand side and dated 1920. Overall size with the frame is 86cm x 76cm x 5 and the painting measured at 63cm x 53cm. A well composed and decoratively framed oil-on-canvas painting by the Russian born and listed painter Maria Vladimirovna Wolkonsky (nee Louguinine). Well-constructed with an accomplished sense of perspective and compositional balance, the painting depicts boats on a lake in rural France. Moscow-born artist Maria Vladimirovna Wolkonsky was an author of secular portraits and landscapes. The wife of Prince A. Volkonsky, she was the mother of the artist P. Volkonsky. She later studied at the Grand Chaumiere Academy in Paris and took part in the Spring exhibitions in the halls of the Academy of Arts in St. Petersburg, the salons of the National Association of Fine Arts and the Tuileries in Paris (1910s). From 1917 she lived and worked permanently in...
