Description

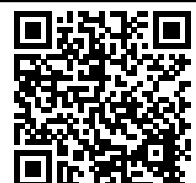

Antique Inlaid Mahogany Moon Phase Longcase Clock by Richard Harford, BRISTOL At Cheshire Grandfather Clocks we hold one of the largest selections of Antique longcase clocks in the UK with over 90 in stock. DESCRIPTION: This is an exquisite inlaid mahogany long case clock, which is of lovely proportions and is beautifully inlaid. It has an eight-day movement on a broken arch painted face with rolling moon. This is a clock of lovely slim proportions which has the most fantastic mahogany case and is incredibly detailed. If we start with the hood, this has a lovely shaped pediment and is finished with lovely turned finials. The hood door is nicely shaped which is typical of a Bristol clock and is flanked by full candy twist columns and nice shaped back splats to the rear. Moving down to the trunk, the door which is beautifully inlaid in fine stringing and above the door is also inlaid with dogtooth inlays. The trunk door is flanked by full candy twist columns. The door contains the most wonderful flame mahogany. The key hole has a lovely shaped brass escutcheon. The base is again beautifully inlaid with stringing in a square and with cross banding to the outside ...
